

British and Australian colloquial style of speaking.

If you're visiting Australia, you should learn some of the local vocabulary. After listening to the podcast, make a note of the new vocabulary.

The stars highlighted in red indicate words used in British English too.

British English	Australian English
A petrol service station
A barbecue	*
Breakfast	*
A swimming costume	*
Sunglasses
A sandwich
The middle of nowhere
The afternoon
A biscuit	*
An ambulance
The plural of you
A beer
Definitely	*
A chicken
A department store called Woolworth
A dangerous jellyfish
A place to buy alcoholic drinks
To be devastated
A well-known white wine
A sausage

#awesome learning